

Dear Sir or Madam,

I'm writing to you to express my deep concern about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

Broadcasting companies have been entrusted with the public air ways to provide balanced news coverage to all citizens. The fact that Sinclair found it appropriate to force its stations to air a one-sided account of this particular issue, while suppressing the opposing view is a breach of public trust. It is your responsibility (the FCC) to hold Sinclair Broadcasting and other public broadcasters to the same standards of conduct.

Everybody has the right of free speech, but broadcasters have promised to the people that their speech will be fair and balanced. Sinclair has broken that promise. Please do your job and make sure that they bear due consequences.
Thank you.
